Dear Colleague:

As Representatives committed to supporting people of faith and American workers, we are pleased to invite you to attend a briefing on Workplace Flexibility and Religion. The briefing will be held on Friday, June 6 from 10:00-11:00 in room 210 of the Cannon House Office Building.

People of diverse faith traditions often desire flexibility in the workplace for religious observance, volunteering, and other community service, as they seek to live out their faith more fully. This briefing will discuss these issues and also highlight the role of workplace flexibility as a response.

Experts speaking at the briefing will include Katie Corrigan, Co-Director Workplace Flexibility 2010; Rev. Ann Dean, Director of Contemplative Prayer Groups and Retreats at the Shalem Institute for Spiritual Formation; Rev. David Gray, Director, Workforce and Family Program, New America Foundation and speakers from several faith traditions.

We hope a member of your staff will be able to participate. If you have any questions concerning this briefing, please contact Brett Swearingen in Rep. Souder's office (5-4436) or Cassandra Young in Rep. Cleaver's office (5-4535).

Sincerely,

Emanuel Cleaver
Member of Congress
