Web Archive Permissions Process

Each collection has a permissions plan.

Legal Blawgs content owners must give us permission to crawl and all but one thus far have given permission to display off-site.

The tracking tool's primary purpose is to manage the permission process.

QUALITY WEB ARCHIVES

Have to specify to the crawler what content to capture/links to follow.

Capturing the depth and breadth of a Web site can be an ongoing challenge in defining its boundaries.

Arkansas Adoption Ban Case Survives Motion to Dismiss
March 22nd, 2009

The ACLU's challenge to the ban on adoption and foster parenting by cohabiting unmarried couples, which was approved by Arkansas voters last November, survived a motion to dismiss this week. As with similar bans in Alabama, Mississippi, Utah, and North Dakota, the best interests of children are being sacrificed by the ban's supporters in order to score a win in the "culture wars" and, more specifically, to prevent the formation or completion of lesbian and gay families.

The history of the Arkansas initiative is tortuous. In 1999, the Arkansas Child Welfare Agency Review Board promulgated a regulation prohibiting an individual from serving as a foster parent "if any adult member of that person's household is a homosexual." In 2006, the Arkansas Supreme Court struck this regulation down as a violation of the separation of powers under the state constitution. Dep't of Human

Web Integration Challenges

- How to integrate into loc.gov standard design?
 - Use standard design and conventions to help user navigate
 - Make visible in search results with other resources
 - Webarchives materials should appear in context – not be in a silo
- How to integrate into existing Law Library content?
 - In context with other specific resources
 - Use Law design and navigation

- Our Approach: use a modified calendar format that breaks the archive for a site down by year, and for each year, into months.
 - Uses well known organizational scheme
 - Uses date formats compatible with Wayback
 - Works with LOC standard design

Working with the Wayback Application Data

- The limit of 12 months in a year and max of 31 links in a month provides a browseable view of when the captures were made and link to the individual captures in the archive.
- In cases of multiple captures in a day, a date links to a page with all the captures for that day.
- This approach puts some extra clicks between the identification of the blog and the view of the archived page - But, the path is clear, organized, and leverages a familiar organizing principle - the calendar.

Future – Enhanced Searching, Bib Records, etc

- Planned Enhancements:
 - Conversion of the Web Archives site to standard design
 - Allow searching and browsing of catalog/bibliographic records
 - Better integration with other collections

Law Library of Congress

- Future challenges: What can you do?
 - Collect and preserve if you have the resources.
 - Help us to improve the site:
Nominate blawgs, submit comments
 - Recommendations for guidelines on blawg administration
 - Standardize some practices

Law Library of Congress

- Biggest challenge ahead will be to keep pace with changes and trends in scholarly publishing. Books published a chapter at a time and articles published one by one are in our near future. Will Librarians need to become aggregators in order to collect and preserve?
